

THE DAILY APPEAL.

TUESDAY MORNING, AUGUST 25, 1857.

SURGEON.

We frequently receive remittances for our paper at rates below those advertised. This is entirely useless, as our rates are fixed and will be departed from in no instance. Such remittances are returned in every instance, and to avoid all trouble and hazard of loss hereafter, we desire the especial attention of all concerned to this notice.

All persons are requested not to purchase papers from our regular carriers, as they are not authorized to sell them. An observance of this request will greatly oblige the publishers.

The Alarm.

The alarm of fire late on Saturday evening, proved to be false.

Mr. Wm. H. Clegg, the issue of the new theatre, and his lady, are at present in the city.

We are indeed again to the obliging attorney, Mr. George A. Atwater, Esq., Company for latest papers from the East, and of the route.

We tender our thanks to the officers of the Memphis and Cincinnati packet offices, and full file of Cincinnati and Louisville papers.

The review at Astor Chapel will be continued during the present week. Since the commencement of these meetings, there have been over one hundred conversions.

PERSONAL.—Q. E. Ussherwood, Esq., of the Haven, Sheld, was in the city yesterday, also, Mrs. Bewry, of Holly Springs—both gentlemen looking well as could be expected under the recent defeat of their party.

The examination of several of the parties engaged in the horse thieving transaction, was postponed until to-day, and we presume will take place before Esquire Hooper at the Court House this morning.

Gen. W. H. Johnson, Orcrist and Aurora, took advantage of the occasion, and obtained a splendid likeness of him, which may be seen at his gallery, corner of Main and Adams street.

Dr. R. H. Johnson, Orcrist and Aurora, returned to the city yesterday morning for latest dates from St. Louis and Cincinnati. The Doctor may hereafter be found at his office on Jefferson street.

A fine block of buildings are being erected in the burnt district on Front Row, between Madison and Court streets. The buildings are going up rapidly, but such is the demand for stores, that we learn every tenement has been engaged, and many applicants were to late.

We would suggest to the authorities in view of the fast approach of the business season, that they would be well advised to improvements on the roads, which would be very acceptable to the river men, and contribute greatly to the convenience of persons having business, with steamboats. It is needed and should be done forthwith.

Mr. Asa Miller, our theatre, on Washington street, some time in the proximate month. We learn that the first attraction he will offer us will be Miss MAGGIE MITCHELL, who will appear before her old Memphis friends with fresh laurels won from the critics of Gotham, where she has recently appeared at the Folies.

We will state that the Boiling Spring contrabandists report a that we gave currency to the other day, the negroes of Mr. May, of Hartman, had been killed by lighting. Our information was derived by a letter, as we understand, from the scene of the reported occurrence direct, and if it is an error, the responsibility does not rest with us.

We call the attention of our plating friends to the card of MESSRS. MILL & HAYES, elsewhere published. They are energetic young men, who, by a most commendable and judicious course of conduct, have secured the favor of their increased facilities, to receive and solicit as many new patrons as may be disposed to give them business. We commend them as faithful and reliable merchants.

A difficulty occurred on Front Row last evening in which W. H. DAYTON was seriously injured by Mr. Drury, a policeman. Drury attacked DAYTON, we understand, for some reason, and the latter had made relative to his conduct in the attended reporting of several hours.

THOMAS BAXTER KING, a son of Dr. J. T. BAXTER, was born yesterday from Neocamps, by way of New York, at which place he arrived some few weeks ago, on board the Cyrus. He is in robust health, and bearing evidences of the hardships incident to the life of a soldier, he is otherwise unchanged.

FARFALL ACCIDENT.—A note from the Postmaster at Oxford to Mayor CARROLL, states that a most fearful accident occurred on the track of the Mississippi and Tennessee Railroad, at Oxford, on Monday last. The accident, Mr. Aspinwall was working on a dry grade, a timbered trestle fell aside and instantly crushing three men to death, and fearfully mangling two others, but it is thought the wounded will recover.

HOT BOX BROWNSVILLE.—Persons desiring to attend the grand Democratic jubilee to day at Brownsville can have an opportunity of doing so by taking the special train this morning at 7 o'clock. The train will deliver them in Memphis again at 12 m. on Tuesday. We hope to see them to remain in the hall at night, and not be seduced about the steamboat. Passage, half price. G. S. did all and let us have a joyous jubilee.

GEN. WALKER.—This distinguished gentleman, accompanied by Col. STANTON, of New Orleans, arrived in the city on Sunday, and took lodgings at the Commercial Hotel. The General is en route for New Orleans, we presume, to perfect his arrangements for returning to Natchez, where he will remain a week or two, and then proceed to New Orleans. Great confidence is expressed in his ultimate success.

HUNTSVILLE FEMALE COLLEGE, ALA.—We have received a "Circular of Huntsville Female College," which we copy herewith. This is the only female college in the South. There is scarcely a prettier town in the United States than Huntsville, and a more intelligent, refined and truly genteel class of people will scarcely be found anywhere. The College Building is a beautiful and costly one, pleasantly located, and furnished with the conveniences of the best schools of New England. The town is one of the most healthy in all the South, and as much as we believe as in any in the United States. The course of instruction is thorough, and the College, we believe, is rapidly growing in public favor. Address, G. M. Everhart, President, Huntsville, Alabama.

For the Memphis Appeal:

MESSRS. BROWN.—In relation to the circumstances that led to the arrest of the band of horse thieves, mentioned in the "Eagle" and "Enquirer" of the 20th, I can state to the public, that the horses were taken from a friend, whose name I do not know, and who resides in this city, and who, when apprehended, was a citizen, and not a slave. Capt. JOHNSON, and Capt. MITCHELL, were arrested, and held in custody Mitchell and Elliston, until I could go to Mississippi and get the stolen horses and the proof necessary for their conviction, and if the three thousand miles were obtained, we would, doubtless, reward the informer.

Mr. Septimus, our reporter, has written to me, by which we were informed, and have made to our knowledge to his house, to make his services available to us, and requested him, and another friend, whom we do not know, and who resides in this city, to arrest and hold in custody Mitchell and Elliston, until I could go to Mississippi and get the stolen horses and the proof necessary for their conviction.

STEWART, KING & CO.

3,000 AGENTS WANTED.

We still have three, and occupied interests, search by every family, by every person, by every company and other places, previous to their arrest; in search of, and trying to find out who the guilty persons were, and in my travel, I found out that John Mitchell and DeWitt Elliston were the thieves, when I returned I communicated the fact to S. D. Yer, former justice of the peace, and now Captain of the Special Police. I communicated the fact to Capt. John Johnson, and the following Monday last, as he was here with us, and requested him, to arrest and hold in custody Mitchell and Elliston, until I could go to Mississippi and get the stolen horses and the proof necessary for their conviction, and if the three thousand miles were obtained, we would, doubtless, reward the informant.

For these reasons I think nothing more right that I should have the reward offered, or be paid ample for my trouble, for I certainly was the first man who ever brought this thing to light. Elliston and Mitchell were neither of them arrested by Capt. Johnson and Gen. Frazer, the names of their confederates in crime. When these were arrested, I was in Marshall county attending the trial of the two, and the trial was suspended.

STEWART, KING & CO.

To the Public.

On the 20th, I can state to the public, that the information I received from Capt. JOHNSON, and the fact that it was the arrest of Mitchell and Elliston took place; as soon as these persons were arrested, they communicated to Capt. Johnson and Gen. Frazer, the names of their confederates in crime. When these were arrested, I was in Marshall county attending the trial of the two, and the trial was suspended.

STEWART, KING & CO.

New Firm.

HAVE associated with us a partner in the grocery and commission business, Capt. JOHNSON, and the fact that it was the arrest of Mitchell and Elliston took place; as soon as these persons were arrested, they communicated to Capt. Johnson and Gen. Frazer, the names of their confederates in crime. When these were arrested, I was in Marshall county attending the trial of the two, and the trial was suspended.
